Marks on the Foundation Stones of the East Haram Wall at the South-east angle, photographed from Captain Warren's Fac-simile Drawings. Scale, one-third the actual size. The two large marks are on the first stone of the fifth course (see Photograph No. 349). The two characters on the other stone are cut in red paint, like the rest, but are cut three-eighths of an inch deep. They are on the second stone of the second course (see Photograph No. 349).

N.B.—The dark colour represents the mark; the fringe of lighter colour round being the edge of the paper of the original drawing.
